

The background features a series of concentric, semi-circular arches in a rainbow color palette (orange, yellow, and lime green) set against a light beige background. A central archway leads to a vertical rectangular opening. The arches are separated by white gaps, creating a layered, tunnel-like effect.

Simply create a shape and use the pre-defined pattern as fill color.

Or just change color or size and create your very own pattern.